

Woodston Primary School Spelling Offer

All children access Quality First Teaching as the primary form of learning to spell. The detail of this is taken directly from the National Curriculum and can be found in our Writing Progression document.

Should further support be necessary, interventions for small groups are available.

