RE: Roald Dahl Day – Friday 13th September

Dear Parents / Carers,

On Friday 13th September, we will be celebrating the famous author, Roald Dahl. During the day, the children will be taking part in lots of different activities to ignite their passion and enjoyment of reading.

As part of our celebrations, we would like to invite all of the children to dress up as a character from their favourite Roald Dahl book. We actively encourage you to use things you may already have at home to create a costume, so please do not feel that you have to buy something new.

We look forward to seeing the children in all of their fabulous costumes.

Kind regards,
Mrs Garner
