

Science

We will be learning about what animals including humans need to survive. You could choose some different animals that live in different habitats and show what they need. Choose one of the animals and compare its needs to the needs of a human.

As an extension, find out what your animal eats. Are they a herbivore, carnivore or omnivore?

