

History

After 'The Great Fire of London' we were going to move on to learning about the Victorians. You could take this time to research Victorian London and complete a project about what you have found out. Your project can be in any form you like: a fact file, a book, a poster, a model etc.

