

L.I. To describe a setting

Remind yourself of yesterday's lesson and the list of words and phrases that you thought of.

Now draw a picture of what you imagine the storm to look like – add as much detail as you can. You can listen to the music and watch the video again if that helps you to imagine it.

Once you have drawn your picture, look at the image below, from the book:

How is your picture the same/different?

Now can you use the words and phrases that you collected yesterday to write a description of the storm to go alongside your artwork?
