

Year 3 Home Learning Activities

This is the last learning pack we are sending out before the summer holidays. You do not need to return any of the work this week or over the summer holiday. The activities are here for you to enjoy next week and into the summer holiday if you wish.

Reading	Summer Reading BINGO! Enjoy reading regularly over the next couple of weeks. Try and read a range of texts (e.g. fiction, poetry and non fiction). You could read books, e-books, magazines and newspapers. Read what ever you enjoy!
English	Handwriting: Cursive Looped. Handwriting practise. The link below is a great website that has videos and activities for you to try at home. If you need more support there is also videos on pencil grip and sitting posture. https://www.kidzone.ws/cursive/ https://www.teachhandwriting.co.uk/route-d-letter-choice-2-ks2.html  Spelling: Please continue to practise the Year 3-4 statutory spellings in which ever way works best for you.
Maths	Mental Maths: Review and practise all the times tables and division facts from 2x all the way to x12  You could play Hit the Button on www.topmarks.co.uk and try to beat your personal score.	Telling the Time Adults: Children need to be able to tell the time to the nearest minute using analogue AND digital.  Two scaffolding activity sheets are provided as well as the objectives for Year 3.
Extra	32 Days of Happiness We have included a range of wellness activities for you to try at home. You could tick them off or use it as a bingo style sheet.
Transition Activities	Adults: Please take the time to talk to your children about any worries or concerns they may have regarding returning to school in September. We have included a range of activities to help you discuss the transition of returning to school. These are optional discussion points so please choose the activities that would be best suited to you and your child's needs.

Transition activities choice grid

Remembering this year	Moving towards next year
Use your name to write an acrostic poem about yourself (include what you are good at and like doing at school). Create a portrait of yourself by drawing or using art materials. Share your poem and portrait with someone else and tell them why you're amazing!	Close your eyes and think about next school year. What do you feel? How does your body feel? Represent your feelings with colours, emojis or a drawing. Label and discuss with your family. Think about how you felt when starting last year and what helped you to settle and do your best.
Make a mind map, list, drawing or collage of what you have enjoyed learning this year. It can be at school or home - a topic or activity, a trip or event? Why did you enjoy it?	Write a letter to your new teacher. You could tell them about yourself, include any worries or questions you have about next year explain and what you are looking forward to in September.
What have you achieved this year? What have you improved /got better at? Design a trophy, medal or award for yourself for reasons of your choice.	Make a list of your goals for next year. Create something to remind yourself (it could be a poster, video, poem, bunting, paper chains or anything you like!).
Make a happy memories pot/jar. Add ideas on post-its or small pieces of paper of things that you like about school. Look at these before you return next year.	Consider: What will be the same about school in September? e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-I will see my friends</li><li>-I will be taken/collected by...</li><li>-I will have lunch at school</li><li>-I will learn exciting things</li><li>-I will have fun!</li></ul>
